

© Hans Jørgen Nielsen

NORWEGIAN SOCIETY FOR COLORECTAL
SURGERY

SURGICAL ASPECTS OF INTESTINAL FAILURE

First ever Norwegian colorectal winter meeting.

MARCH 16TH - 18TH
2022
SCANDIC VOSS HOTEL

Meet colleagues from across the country. Find time to discuss.
Share your experience. Get inspired.
Go skiing during the lunch break.

Join us in Voss!

UP-TO-DATE KNOWLEDGE FOR ALL INTERESTED SURGEONS.

Confirmed international speakers:

- Gordon Carlson, UK
- Marja Boermeester, NL
- Mattias Soop, SWE
- Palle Jeppesen, DK

Topics covered:

- Prevention of the hostile abdomen and fistulas
- Primary management of the hostile abdomen
- Definitive surgery - who, what, when?
- Handling disability - short bowel syndrome

This event is arranged by Norsk Forening for Kolorektal Kirurgi / Norwegian Society for Colorectal Surgery. For more information and registration please visit kolorektal.no

PROGRAM: Surgical aspects of intestinal failure
Prevention and management
NFKK spring meeting Voss Norway, 16 th -18 th March 2022

Wednesday 16th of March

15.00 – 20.00 Arrival and check-in
20.00 Dinner
21.30 Get-together

Thursday 17th of March

07.30-08.00 Registration. Coffee and tea (breakfast is served between 06.30 and 08.00)
08.00-08.15 Opening and Welcome by the NFKK board

08.15-12.00 SESSION ONE: HOW TO STAY OUT OF TROUBLE

Prevention of hostile abdomen and fistulas. Chair: L Hårklau, S Busund

0815-0830	Case presentation	K Nordland, NO
0830-0900	Preoperative optimisation
0830-0845	Surgical factors – elective, timing of surgery	M. Gaard NO
0845-0900	Anaesthetic factors – elective and acute preoperative preparations	K. Baksaa-Aasen NO
0900-0930	How to avoid anastomotic leakage, technical considerations to avoid bowel damage/leakage	K. Thorsen NO
0930-0945	Identifying postoperative leakage and timing of reoperation	S. Norderval NO
0945-1000	Coffee break
1000-1030	Abdominal perforations/leakage: suture, divert or damage control and second look	M. Boermeester NL
1030-1100	Special considerations in IBD	T. Øresland NO
1100-1130	The path to a hostile abdomen - exemplified by cases	G. Carlson UK
1130-1200	Case discussions with panel and interaction with audience, questions	K. Nordland, NO

12.00-16.00 LUNCH AND SKI BREAK (Lunch is served between 12.00 and 12.30)

15.45-16.15 Coffee and cake

16.15-19.30 SESSION TWO: MANAGEMENT OF THE HOSTILE ABDOMEN

Primary management of the hostile abdomen: who, what, when. Chair: JM Næsgaard, T Gjengstø

16.15-16.35	Handling the open abdomen – How I do it	M. Gaard, NO
16.35-16.55	Handling the open abdomen – How I do it	A. Sæternes, NO
16.55-17.15	Handling of the open abdomen – How I do it	G. Carlson, UK
17.15-17.30	Break
17.30-18.00	Open abdomen from a stoma nurse perspective	T. Olsen, NO
18.00-18.45	Enterocutaneous fistula, surgical considerations	M. Boermeester, NL
18.45-19.30	Panel discussion
20.00	Dinner

Friday 18th of March

(breakfast is served between 06.30 and 08.00)

08.00-11.30 SESSION THREE: REPAIR

Definitive surgery: who, what, when. Chair: JK Schultz, AB Vik

08.00-08.45	SNAP concept (Sepsis, Skin, Nutritional support, defining anatomy, Plan)	M. Soop, SE
08.45-09.15	Definitive surgery	G. Carlson, UK
09.15-09.45	Coffee
09.45-10.10	Definitive surgery cont	G. Carlson, UK
10.10-10.30	Experimental treatment	L. de Weerd, NO
10.30-11.00	Repair of the abdominal wall when and how	T. Gaarder, NO
11.00-11.30	Panel discussion: Case presentation	J. Schultz, NO

11.30-12.30 LUNCH12.30-15.00 PART FOUR: HANDLING DISABILITY

Short bowel syndrome. Chair: LM Bjerke, SP Haugvik

12.30-13.15	Medical handling (long-term parenteral nutrition, Revestive and other options)	P. Jeppesen, DK
13.15-13.45	Advanced surgical treatment (intestinal lengthening, intestinal transplant)	M. Soop, SE
13.45-14.45	Panel discussion: The way to success – the Danish, the Swedish and the UK way	Carlson, Soop, Jeppesen
14.45-14.50	Adjourn	